VOLUME CVII.--NO. 235. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowles and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate, stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equaled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

HICKS FOR OCTOBER.

A reactionary storm period is in progress at the opening of October. Earth's autumnal equinox covers up to about the 20th; Venus period is central on the 17th and covers the whole of the month; Mercury period reaches to the 10th and the regular Vulcan period is in force from the 2nd to 7th. The full moon falls on the 2nd, being on the celestial equator one the same day.

The regular storm period chartered from the 2nd to the 7th will take up the disturbances and renew and prolong them during the first week of the month. The 2nd is the central day of a probable seismic period, extending 2 to 3 days before and after that date. Look for rushing high barometer, northwesterly gales and change to unseasonably cold.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 10th, 11th and 12th. Look at this time for a return of storm conditions. The Venus influence all through this part of October will be to extreme of temperature with storms from vicious lightning and thunder to sudden change into almost winter storms and temperature.

A regular storm period covers the 16th to 20th, having new moon at its center on the 17th. In all probability this will prove one of the most severe to dangerous storm periods of this month, if not the whole autumn. Frost will work into central to southern regions from the 18th to the 22d or dates touching. The 17th is the center of another seismic period, extending from the 15th to the 20th. This is a most probable time when some more earthquake "faults" will conclude to "let up."

A reactionary storm period is central on the 23d to 25th, at which time change to warmer, with cloudiness and more rain may be expected.

A regular storm period covers the last five days of the month, embracing the second full moon in October on the 31st and moon on the equator on the 29th. During the 28th to 31st wide stretches of cloudiness, rain and snow will pass across the whole country from west to east. The culmination of these storms will probably center on the 31st, on or before which date an early cold wave, with decided dashes of autumnal snow and gales, will be well on their sweep from the northwest.

Defend the Church Bell.

Twenty pastors of Washington churches were present at a hearing before the Commissioner of the District of Columbia yesterday for the purpose of protesting against the enforcement of a recently announced regulation that all church bells in the District must be silenced.

Rev. Dr. James P. Mackin, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church, Fifteenth and V streets northwest, made an earnest plea for the church bell. He declared that the move to stop the ringing of the church bells is simply the opening gun in the battle between the materialistic and religious forces of life. "Those who do not wish to be reminded of the hereafter," he said, "are seeking to silence the bells. They strive for six days at material gain and then when on Sunday they fancy their sleep disturbed seek to interfere with those who enjoy hearing the voice of God as sounded through the sweet voice of a bell."

Rev. William J. Howell, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, said: "So sweet and tender are the tones of our church bell that its worst sound would not alarm anyone with a clear conscience."

Mr. J. Holdsworth Gordon, representing Christ Church, Georgetown, said it was his opinion that Sunday lost much of its character when the ringing of church bells ceased.

Commissioner Macfarland explained to the ministers that it was not the intention of the regulation to entirely abolish the ringing of church bells, but only to reduce it as much as possible, and to make provision in exceptional cases where illness might require the suspension of bell-ringing for a time.

The Separation Bill.

The Paris Gaulois yesterday printed an interview which its correspondent at Rome had with the Pope Thursday on the church and state separation law in which the pontiff is quoted as saying:

"It is not I who coudemned the law, but Christ, of whom the Pope is simply the vicar. The Saviour granted the church a constitution and a doctrine, against which no human law can prevail. The separation law is contrary to Catholic doctrines and opposed to divine rulings, is unjust, and, therefore, carries no obligation of obedience to it."

The pontiff said that he had only done his duty for the moral well-being of the church, which exacted respect for the doctrines of the church confided to his care.

"Providence," the Pope continued, "will decide the future and fix the mundane consequences. My resolution was taken in pursuance to the will of God. I await Providence to make high designs manifest."

The Pope further declared that his veto would remain absolute while the French Chambers refused to modify the law in accordance with Catholic dogma, and concluded:

"It is not necessary for the government to surrender. Surrender means to bow before the will of a victorious enemy, and the Pope applies the name of 'enemy' to no one in France. If the legislators committed an error in good faith, and will acknowledged it, they will find now here a more conciliatory spirit than at Rome. If they deliberately seek war, they will find themselves confronted by the defender of Christ, animated by supreme energies."

Snubbed Negro Lawyer.

Because the attorney who sought to cross-examine her was a negro, Miss Anna P. Thomas, said to be a cousin of President Roosevelt, refused to answer the questions she was adjudged to be in contempt by Judge Mullowny in Police Court in Washington yesterday. A fine of $10 was imposed. Miss Thomas was a witness in the case of Frank W. Roberts, charged with cruelty to animals. She took the stand and told what she knew about the matter, saying that she had seen Roberts without provocation administer extreme punishment to his horse. Attorney Ricks, representing the defendant, asked her a question.

"I refuse to answer questions asked by that darkey," said Miss Thomas, turning to Judge Mullowny.

The Court, however, was unsympathetic, and replied: "He isn't a darkey. He is an American citizen and a member of the bar. He is defending this man and has a right to ask you questions."

"I refuse to answer a negro," she insisted.

"You must answer," replied the court.

"I won't answer the questions, even for you," volunteered the witness.

"You are fined $10, in default of which I will commit you to jail for two days," said the judge.

Miss Thomas paid the fine, and as she left the courtroom she laughed at the incident. The case against Roberts was dismissed.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 29, 1906.

WHEN President Roosevelt on October 4th addresses his fellow citizens at Harrisburg, upon the dedication of the "bronze doors" of the new capitol of Pennsylvania, he will have a great opportunity to advance the cause of good government. The time will be just about a month before the people of Pennsylvania will be called upon to decide between the "regular" republicans and the Lincoln reformers. The "bronze doors" will record for ages the most corrupt and degraded government that a free people ever submitted to, for the ringleader is embossed thereon in enduring bronze. President Roosevelt can hardly endorse the late Senator Quay, or his audacious methods, but will he have the courage to denounce Penrose, the successor of Quay, and endorse the cause of the people, who through the reform organization known as the Lincoln republicans, are trying to wipe out the stain and corruption of political bossism? It will be a crucial test of how much the real reform spirit animates Mr. Roosevelt and how greatly his mind is bent on vivifying reform efforts in others. The issue is plain. On the one side is the old Quay organization, now headed by Senator Penrose and still backed by the corrupt trusts and corporations that have so long dominated Pennsylvania, on the other hand are the plain people—the reformers and the democrats, striving to overthrow corruption and grafting and laying aside political partisanship to attain that much desired end. It is a great opportunity for President Roosevelt and he will have the undivided attention of all his fellow citizens, everywhere, who are fighting for real reform and who trust to find him unconditionally recorded on the side of decency and righteousness.

BY ONE OF the fiercest hurricanes in the history of the gulf coast the prosperous seaports of Pensacola, Fla., and Mobile, Ala., have been laid waste. At the former place the estimated property loss is $5,000,000, at the latter, $3,000,000. Thousands of homes are wrecked and their inmates wander shelterless through the streets in a gale which still rages. At Pensacola big ocean-going steamers were hurled through houses on shore by the force of a 90-mile wind. Out of a fleet of sixty ships at their moorings before the storm began, a bare half dozen escaped destruction. Thirty fishing vessels were sunk. So fearful is the chaos existing in the stricken towns that no accurate estimate of the loss of life can be made.

EVIDENCE developed before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Chicago recently goes to show that the grain buyers of the country are in a gigantic conspiracy to dictate the price on cereals. The charge had been brought by the Great Western Railroad that the Peavy Elevator Company, of Omaha, was receiving an unlawful rebate of 1½ cents on the 100 pounds of grain from the Union Pacific Railroad. When asked by Special Counsel Marble if the Peavy Company made the price independently of any other concern, the member of the company thus questioned refused to answer.

THE EXPECTED has happened and Secretary Taft, who many believed was sent to Cuba by the President for that purpose, has proclaimed himself Military Governor of the "Pearl of the Antilles," and annexation may soon follow. Well, "If it were done, when 'tis done, then 'twere well it were done quickly."

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Sept. 29.

Secretary Taft cables Chief of Staff Bell this morning: "Make immediate preparations so send an army of occupation to Cuba." The dispatch was taken at once by Gen. Bell to acting Secretary of War Oliver, who wired it to the President, asking for instructions. Gen. Oliver expects to receive a reply within an hour.

Without waiting for an answer from the President, Acting Secretary of War Oliver issued orders for the immediate mobilization of the first expedition at Newport News, Va. It will consist of 5,60 0 men.

At 11:30 today, Chief of Staff Bell set the machinery of the army in motion for the occupation of Cuba. The commanders of the various organizations selected for the first expedition were ordered to report with their commands at Newport News as soon as possible, there to take ship for Havana and Cienfuegos. Messages were also sent to the merchant steamship companies, with which tentative arrangements has been made some days ago, to have the designated vessels proceed to the point of embarkation without delay. Within a week the expedition will be under way. It will be followed by other expeditions.

The United States navy yard at Pensacola, Fla., has been greatly damaged, if not entirely destroyed by the hurricane. The first word received by the department from any of the southern ports that were affected by the storm reached Washington this morning from Captain George A. Bicknell, Commander of the Pensacola navy yard. The dispatch is dated September 27-28, indicating considerable delay in transmission. It says: "Destructive cyclone last night. Sea covered the navy yard. Damage afloat and ashore great. Details later. Two hundred refugees at hospital."

The War Department this morning received the following dispatch from Mobile, Ala., signed by Col. Dwyer, commanding the army post in that city: "Post swept by terrific storm, entire post having been under water. Every building seriously damaged, some destroyed completely, including pumping plant which furnishes water supply, ordnance storehouse, quartermasters' storehouse, two primary stations with instruments, quartermasters' dock, and main water tank. It is thought possible to have water transported from Mobile, temporarily, after the storm subsides." The dispatch is dated September 28.

Police Court Judge Mullowney, who yesterday fined Miss Anna P. Thomas, a member of the local humane society, upon her refusal to answer the question of a negro lawyer in a cruelty case, is to be made the object of attack by the society. Without informing Miss Thomas that the negro was a lawyer and had the right to question her. Judge Mullowney ordered her arrested and sentenced her to be confined for two days or pay a fine of ten dollars. The fine was paid and the judge dismissed the cruelty case. The humane society will take the matter up at a special meeting on Monday. Miss Thomas has retained an attorney and as soon as the case can be arranged she will prefer charges against the judge. "I am a fighter" declared Miss Thomas today. "I will not let this matter end until Judge Mullowney is compelled to treat white women who go to his court in the interest of mistreated dumb animals with the respect that is due them."

It is said here that the course of the United States representatives in Cuba will be similar to that pursued by them in the last year of the American occupation of the island. Among the first things to be done is to arrange for the election of new officials of the republic. It is expected that the elections will be held about January 1st. They will be conducted under the Cuban electoral law and American representatives will be present at the polling places to see that they are conducted in an orderly and legal fashion.

Bank Robbery in Lisbon.

Lisbon, Portugal, Sept. 29.—In a daring raid on the vaults of the Bank of Portugal, last night, robbers carried off $1,000. Only discovery while they were at work prevented them from making a rich haul. A large sewer which runs beneath the bank building was used by the thieves to gain admission. From the sewer they bored a passage way into the mint chamber where there was stored gold bars and coin to the amount of $500,000. One of the guards of the bank was aroused by the noise made by the robbers and gave the alarm. The men retreated by the same way they had entered the building and made good their escape.

Roosevelt, jr., to be Arrested.

Boston, Sept. 29.—Teddy Roosevelt, jr., will be arrested today on a warrant charging him with disorderly conduct and assault in beating Policeman Fraher, in a midnight escapade on the Common. Young Roosevelt may avoid arrest by surrendering to the police.

Theodore Roosevelt was permitted to go back to Cambridge this morning free from any further danger of arrest or annoyance resulting from the student fracas of Thursday night in Boston, Common.

The President's Movements.

Provincetown, Mass., Sept 29.—The Mayflower, bearing President Roosevelt and escorted by two torpedo boats, arrived in the Provincetown harbor at 7 o'clock this morning. No landing was made and the yacht departed to join the ships of the North Atlantic squadron, at the range, 12 miles away, without dropping anchor. The President did not appear on deck. Fine weather prevails and the gunners of the fleet are hoping to make some fine record scores under the eyes of the chief executive.

Paris Threatened With Bread Famine.

Paris, Sept. 29.—Paris is threatened with a bread famine. A general strike of all the bakers of the city and the new law requiring that all employees shall be allowed one day of rest in seven, is directly responsible for the critical situation existing. It has been proposed to make Monday the rest day of the bakers. A general meeting of the craft was held today at which it was decided to call a general strike of bakers in case an effort is made to enforce the day of rest.

News of the Day.

Vice-President Fairbanks and Secretaries Bonaparte and Shaw are expected to take part in the campaign in the Second Congressional district of Virginia.

A great mass-meeting is to be held at Gainesville, Tex., today for the purpose of proclaiming to the country that the people of Texas have no distrust of Senator Joseph W. Bailey, and that the attacks upon him have no respectable support.

The loss of life by the recent storm in Mobile is variously estimated at from 5 to 50 persons. Many persons were injured, 5,000 houses damaged, the business quarter devastated, and a property loss of fully $3,000,000, is the effect of the hurricane.

Isaac B. Williams, white, aged thirty-eight, of Columbus, and Elizabeth Foster, colored, aged twenty-seven, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were married in Washington yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter H. Brooks, pastor of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church.

John D. Platt, 47 years old, a New York real estate agent, and who had been employed for the last 15 years by the House and Home Real Estate Company, of east Twenty-third street, died yesterday at the Bellevue Hospital as the result of falling out of bed. Platt fell while getting up to get medicine, and although he fell only three feet, fractured his skull.

At yesterday's session of the convention of the social democratic party in Mannheim, Germany, resolutions were unanimously adopted expressing sympathy with the Russian revolutionists, and it was decided not to use a general strike as a political weapon. By a vote of 386 to 5, the convention also determined not to make a demonstration on May Day in favor of the revolutionists of Russia, as such demonstrations were largely futile.

While playing with several children in the rear of his parents' home in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday morning, the fourteen-months'-old son of George Wenz was burned so badly that he died within a half hour afterward. The little fellow's four-year-old brother had buried the baby in a pile of leaves and straw, which he set on fire, intending to play fireman and make a rescue. Mrs. Wenz reached the child too late to save his life.

On Monday the new Federal Meat Inspection law goes into effort. It provides that no cellars or subcellars can be used for the storage of meats. This means that in place of all the cold-storage plants constructed under ground others must be constructed above the surface. Another provision relates to the sanitary arrangements and the construction of the buildings, involving in many cases complete reconstruction. The law requires that all meat shipped out of the State in which it is packed must bear the stamp of the government inspector.

Discovered just as an attempt at suicide was about to succeed, Henry Sussman was yesterday taken in charge by the Minneapolis, Minn., police. Later he confessed to the murder of his young wife as she lay asleep in a room in the Glenwood Hotel last Wednesday morning. Sussman was found in a room at the Nashville Hotel, lying unconscious on the bed, with five gas jets turned on. He was in a stupor, but was revived, Sussman said he had endeavored to induce his wife to go to La Crosse with him to testify in his behalf in his trial for forgery. She would not agree, and he reproached her with infidelity. According to his story, they quarreled all night, and he then shot her.

INTERVENTION INEVITABLE.

The American legation at Havana is investigating rumors that rebel bands will attemp to capture Havana before the American forces land.

United States marines and sailors on the warships off the island have been under orders to be ready for a landing since 2 p. m. yesterday.

The rival faction in Cuba spent yesterday in fruitless conferences in an effort to agree on a candidate for president and avoid intervention.

Secretary Taft mistrusts both the moderates and the liberals and has completed plans to occupy the island.

The Cuban Congress met yesterday and asked President Palma to reconsider his resignation, but he declined. The body refused to reassemble to select a successor to Palma.

Under the circumstances Secretary Taft will order United States forces to make a landing, probably today, and declare a provisional government until peace is restored.

Wild rumors have reached the American Legation in Havana to the effect that the rebels, seeing that intervention is certain today, and that last night was their only chance of occupying the city, are advancing upon Havana. United States officers are investigating the matter, with the view of preventing the entry of the rebels into the city, if such a step is contemplated.

The Governor of Santiago reports that the rebels are organising and concentrating in the vicinity of the city of Guantanamo. He also reports that the rebels are collecting arms and horses. Bands are reported around Baracoa, indicating that the eastern province is more rebellious than hitherto.

Democratic Executive Committee.

The meeting of the State central democratic executive committee in Richmond last night was informal, there being present not a quorum of the committee. Many matters of interest to the party were discussed. Much of the work done was in executive session, secrecy being entailed upon all who were present. Reports from all districts were received, all of which showed the party in those districts to be in a good condition. There seems to be little fear entertained that Judge Saunders will not win out in the Fifth district. Ninth district democrats are also sanguine of success.

A Narrow Escape.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodal For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Virginia News.

Charles Henry Grim, one of the best-known farmers of Frederick county, died of consumption at his home, Brightside, yesterday in his sixty-eight year.

Mr. James S. Benson, manager of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company plant at Staunton, died of apoplexy last night. He was a native of Charlottesville, 60 years old and a gallant Confederate soldier.

The big American schooner Success arrived in the Richmond docks yesterday with the first cargo of pure raw molasses landed there in 15 years. The Success was 25 days from Antigua, Lesser Antilles British West Indies, when she landed.

There will be held in Dranesville district, in Fairfax county, a primary election for road commissioner to be voted for at the November election, 1906. The primary will be held on Saturday, October 6th, at the several precincts in said district.

Many colored servant girls and housecleaners in Richmond are now enrolled in the Virginia House-Cleaning Company. There are some who have not yet been sworn in, but William Aytes, the manager, is busy trying to secure their signatures to the agreement.

The board of police commissioners of Richmond decided yesterday to increase the police force, establish a mounted patrol, erect a sub-police station, and establish a number of new alarm boxes. The reason assigned is the increased population and the influx of foreigners, due to railroad construction.

Sim Bagby, colored, was hanged at Saluda, Middlesex county, yesterday morning, for a brutual attempt at criminal assault on Miss Cora Stanley, a deaf and dumb girl, one month ago. On the gallows he warned others of his example. Only two men have ever been hanged in Middlesex, the first one about fifty years ago.

Facing death between the wheels of a wagon and already severely hurt, Willie Pritchett, a farmer, cried at the crowd that gathered to rescue him to let him alone and not to scare his mules. Pritchett fell from the front of the vehicle and was kicked a severe blow just over his ear by the mule he was driving. The front wheel of the wagon also passed over him. He got up, refused medical attention and drove off as if nothing had happened.

Mrs. H. M. Tolson, of Stafford county, had a bad scare Thursday. She went to her henhouse and saw what she supposed was a black hen lying dead in the nest. She attempted to take it up, but as soon as she touched the object, she discovered it was a large black snake, coiled up in the nest. The snake had eaten all the eggs it could find and also swallowed a china nest egg. Mrs. Tolson made a rapid retreat. The snake measured nearly six feet. It was killed.

Charles G. Kline, an Evanston, Illinois, coal merchant, using a shotgun as a weapon, mortally wounded his wife as she lay in her bed in their residence early yesterday. Then he placed the muzzle of the weapon against his side and killed himself instantly. Mrs. Kline died half an hour later. It is believed Mr. Kline enacted the tragedy while mentally unbalanced. He had suffered from a disorder of the brain for some years, and for a time was a patient in a sanitarium. Mr. Kline was forty-three years old and his wife thirty-nine. They leave six children.

Suspension of a Bank.

The Middleport, Ohio, Bank, a private institution, failed to open its doors yesterday. It is stated that a greater portion of the deposits, amounting to $115,000, are missing. Most of the depositors are poor people and their deposits represented nearly all their savings. The president of the bank is E. C. Fox. He went away last Tuesday, leaving Vice-President T. S. Armentrout in charge. An examination of the vaults after Fox had gone revealed $3,000 in cash and paper worth less than $50,000 on its face to account for the $115,000 deposited. Armentrout was formerly a Presbyterian minister at Gallopolis, and on the solicitation of Fox resigned the ministry the 1st of June, converted his property into $6,000 and entered the bank as an equal partner with Fox, entirely unaware of its financial condition. He has lost $6,000 and is now almost a physical wreck over worrying about the outcome of his new enterprise. Before leaving Fox drew out all his personal deposits and that of his wife, whom he recently married at Toronto, O. It is also found that the bank building is mortgaged to its full value, and the Fox house, one of the finest residences in Middleport, was transferred to Mrs. Fox as was also his other property. Fox went to Middleport a few years ago from Kansas. He started a national bank in Middleport, but recently the affairs of that bank were wound up and he opened a private bank in the same building. An old man, who was a depositor in the bank, attempted to shoot the vice president when he heard that the bank had suspended.

Bomb Thrown Into Tenament House.

A bomb was thrown last night, presumably from a tenement house at First avenue and Sixty-third street, New York, upon the small grocery store of Salvatore Campisi, adjoining the tenement, while Campisi, his brother, his wife, and two children were seated under the skylight at dinner. The bomb exploded, tearing the inside of the living room to pieces, burying the Campisis under the wrecking and shaking the tenement houses so greatly that the terrified inmates rushed into the street. Police reserves were hurried to the place, and the grocer's family was extricated from the debris dazed, but not severly injured. Campisi showed the police three "black hand" letters he had received, demanding $500 on penalty of having the store blown up if he failed to pay.

TAFT PROCLAIMS HIMSELF MILITARY GOVERNOR.

Havana, Sept. 29.—The first Cuban republic is dead. Failing utterly in all efforts to reconcile the warring factions, in the infant republic, Secretary of War William H. Taft, acting as special commissioner from President Roosevelt, today declared himself provisional military governor. The United States forces will now stamp out the present trouble, and the work of reorganizing the Cuban government will at once begin.

A proclamation containing the official announcement of Secretary Taft of the taking of the Cuban government under the wing of the United States is published today in the Official Gazette.

It is addressed to the people of Cuba in the following words:

"The failure of Congress to act on the irrevocable resignation of the President of the Republic of Cuba, or to elect a successor, leaves this country without a government at a time when great disorder prevails, and requires that, pursuant to a request of President Palma, the necessary steps be taken, in the name of and by the authority of the President of the United States, to restore order and protect life and property in the Island of Cuba, and in the islands and keys adjacent thereto, and for this purpose to establish therein a provisional government.

"The provisional government hereby established by direction and in the name of the President of the United States, will be maintained only long enough to restore order and peace and public confidence, and then to hold such elections as may be necessary to determine those persons upon whom the permanent government of the republic should be devolved.

"In so far as is consistent with the nature of a provisional government, established under the authority of the United States, this will be a Cuban government, conforming as far as may be with the constitution of Cuba. The Cuban flag will be hoisted as usual, over the government buildings of the island; all the executive deparments and the provincial and municipal governments, including that of the city of Havana, will continue to be administered as under the Cuban republic; the courts will continue to dispense justice; and all laws not in their nature inapplicable by reason of the temporary and emergent nature of the government, will be in force.

"President Roosevelt has been most anxious to bring about peace under the constitutional government of Cuba, and has made every endeavor to avoid the present step. Longer delay, however, would be dangerous in view of the resignation of the cabinet.

"Until further notice, the heads of all the departments of the central government will report to me for instructions, including General Alejandro Rodrigues, in command of the Rural Guard and the other regular forces, and General Barlos Roloff, Treasurer of Cuba. Until further notice, the civil governors and alcaldes will also report to me for instructions.

"I ask all citizens of Cuba to assist in the work of restoring order, tranquility and confidence.

"WILLIAM H. TAFT,
"Secretary of War of the United States."

Suppressed excitement among the residents of the city has followed the taking over of power by Mr. Taft. In some quarters, there is a disposition to resent the American interference and there are prospects that this feeling may manifest itself in some violent form.

Havana, Sept. 29.—Captain Seaton Scroeder of the Virginia, and General Funston visited Camp Columbia, today to map out the positions to be occupied by various forces to be landed from the warships. Secretary Taft is preparing to lose no time in disarming the insurgents still in the field. He is expected to appoint a commission to visit the rebel generals and arrange for this.

Fatal Rear-end Collision.

Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 29.—At 9:15 o'clock this morning Pennsylvania passenger train No. 107, which left Jersey City at 8:17 a. m., ran into the rear coach of passenger train No. 291, between Croyden and Eddington, Pa. Three passengers were killed, one of them being a Miss Brown, daughter of Dr. Brown, of Elizabeth, N. J. The other two dead bodies have not been identified. Sixteen passengers were injured.

New York, Sept. 29.—At the Pennsylvania offices in this city, it is stated that in the wreck on the New York division this morning, 7 persons were killed and 15 injured.

The accident was serious in every respect. The Philadelphia express, leaving New York at 7:30 a. m., while running a mile a minute, crashed into the rear of the Long Branch special, which had stopped to make repairs near the Eddington station. The rear car of the Branch train was cut in two as if by a knife and the second car was smashed to kindling wood. Passengers in the last two cars, were caught in the jamming of the woodwork and pinned in. One half of the last car was thrown to one side of the track, while the other half was tossed to the other side. The engine plowed its way through the second car and reduced it to splinters. Some of the passengers were hurled in the air, while others were crushed to death by the engine. Among the injured is J. H. Caswell, a traveling salesman from Washington. He is suffering from contusions.

Another Threat.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29.—Fresh alarm has been caused among the occupants of the Winter Palace by the finding of a mysterious note, believed to be a threat against Premier Stolypin, on the desk of the premier in the palace. "We were eighteen," the note ran, "One, Konoplianikovo (meaning Zenaide Konoplianikovo, the assassin of General Min), and another Kosloff, have been executed. A third perished in the explosion in your house. We are fifteen now." The interpretation placed on the note is that the fifteen remaining will be sufficient to dispose of the premier. Retaliation for the two executions also seems hinted at. But the greatest significance is attached to the fact that the note was left in Premier Stolypin's office. This shows that the terrorists are again within the Winter Palace just as they are known to exist in the palace at Peterhoff. Until these agents can be apprehended no one in the palace will feel safe from attack at any moment.

The new and sensational theory was advanced in New York today that Marhar Tagjiaff, who was killed last Saturday night, and his body cut up by his brother Aram, was really the victim of the Armenian revolutionary society.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

Mobile, Ala., via Meridian, Miss., Sept. 29.—Nearly one hundred lives have been lost in the Gulf hurricane, which practically destroyed this city. Reports from near-by towns indicate that the death list will be larger.

Provisions are about exhausted and the poor are starving.

Mobile is a city of desolation. Eight thousand homes are in ruins. The damage to the city will amount to $5,000,000, while estimates of loss to the outlying districts reach $4,000,000. The beaches are strewn with dead, as the loss of mariners was heavy. The military is in control and trying to meet the situation. There is a complete cessation of business in Mobile, for the commercial district was inundated.

Every effort is being made to avert famine. A commissary department has been established in the centre of the city and the militia is feeding the poor. There is a great lack of food stuffs with little prospect of aid from other cities for some time. The farming districts near by are under water, and railroad communication is still cut off. Relief trains may not reach here for several days, as miles of track have been washed away.

Disease from foul conditions of the streets and reeking with carrion is feared. The dead along the shore are being buried as rapidly as found and the city officials are trying to restore the city to sanitary conditions.

The shipping has been destroyed and the wharves have been washed away so that arriving vessels will have to anchor far from shore, making work of unloading difficult. Scores of wrecks line the shore.

The hurricane was of such force that it swept the sea into the city. The commercial district was under seven feet of water when the blow was at its height. Rain fell in torrents, and all the streets were nothing but fast running streams. The injured numbers hundreds.

Labor is at a premium and wholesale houses willingly paid as much as a dollar and a half an hour for common labor today.

The cotton crop in the hurricane swept district has been ruined. Planters believe there will be a serious shortage.

Gulfport, including the great Southern Hotel, is reported almost entirely washed away with many killed and injured. A conservative estimate of the loss of life in this vicinity places it at 100.

The Gulf storm has apparently exhausted its strength, and appears this morning as a weak disturbance central in eastern Missouri.

Charges Against Japanese.

Honolulu, Sept. 29.—The officers and the passengers of the stranded steamer Mongolia report that the Japanese training ship Anegawa deliberately abandoned them and also that Purser Rennie was roughly ordered off the Anegawa while begging assistance. The Agewawa's officers say the story is false, that they rendered every assistance in their power. They say they lost all their hawsers while trying to give assistance and that the vessel was short of coal. The Anegawa reports that the supply ships Buford and Eroquoisa arrived the next day with the proper tackle and the passengers were transferred safely.

Rescue of a Merchant.

A prominent merchant of Shongo, N. Y., J. A. Johnson, says: "Several years ago I contracted a cough which grew worse, until I was hardly able to move around. I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Before I had taken half a bottle my cough was much better, and in a short time I was entirely cured. I surely believe it saved my life. It will always be my family remedy for colds?" Fully guaranteed; 50c and $100 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Trial bottle free.

Fifteen minutes after Miss Amanda E. McClain had become the bride of Walter Johnson, of Norristown, Pa., she wanted a divorce, because, she said her husband had taken a drink. Johnson resided at Salem, N. J., and Miss McClain in Norriton township.

Governor Visits Washington.

The Commodore Maury, the flag ship of the Virginia oyster navy, passed by this city on the way to Washington early yesterday morning with Gov. Swanson aboard. Accompanying the governor were Chairman W. McD. Lee, of the State board of fisheries; Secretary S. Wilkins Matthews, Rorer A. James, of Danville, a member of the board; Speaker W. P. Cardwell, of the Virginia house, Maj. Robert W. Hunter, of Richmond, and Col. R. E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax.

Gov. Swanson went to the Navy Department with officials for the purpose of procuring a small machine gun for the armament of the Maury. The result of the conference with Secretary Bonaparte and others was satisfactory, and it is likely that a 1-inch gun will soon be mounted on the forward deck of the vessel. Gov. Swanson returned to Richmond on the 10:50 train.

The Maury took Gov. Swanson aboard at Old Point Wednesday night and brought him to Montross, in Westmoreland, for breakfast Thursday. The governor, Col Lee, Rev. J. William Jones, and Maj. Hunter delivered addresses to about 1,500 people at Montross, the occasion being the dedication of a monument to the Confederate dead of Westmoreland. Later in the day the party went to Stratford, the birthplace of Gen. Lee, where they took the steamer for Washington.

Yom Kippur.

At sunset last evening Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, began and will last until sunset tonight. Services were held in the Washington street synagogue last night and will continue again this morning. The services were conducted by Rabbi Louis Kopald and the attendance was large. The stores conducted by Israelites were closed today. They will, however, be reopened at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Day of Atonement is one in the cycle of holidays instituted by Moses. It occurs on the tenth day of the seventh month, and is distinguished by abstaining thereon from food and by an elaborate ceremonial. It is the keystone of the sacrificial system of post-exilic Judaism. In the belief that the great national misfortunes of the past were due to the people's sins, the Jews of post-exilic times strove to bring on the messianic period of redemption by strictly and minutely guarding against all manner of sin. The land being defiled by the sin of the people, the pollution must be removed, lest the Divine Presence withdraw from among them.

The Arlington Bank.

On last Friday week, the stock-holders of the newly organized Arlington Bank, located at Rosslyn, met at the bank building, and elected Mr. E. W. Stearns, President; John B Henderson, jr., Vice-President, who together with Messrs. P. M. Rixey, C. Jones Rixey, Geo. H. Rucker, W. S. Hoge, jr., and Crandall Mackey constitute the board of directors.

It was reported that all the stock had been subscribed for and more wanted.

Mr. John S. Buckner, of Culpeper, has been elected cashier. For the present, he and Mr. Stearns will conduct the bank.—[County Monitor.

After Policy Promoters.

Officer Knight on Thursday arrested a colored man named Lemuel Carter, whom he charged with promoting policy. The case came before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning when Carter was fined $20. The evidence showed that white men were conducting policy in the neighborhood of the Southern Railway depot, and a warrant was issued for their arrest. Officers Knight, Roberts, Beach and Arrington later took them in custody. One was fined $40 and the other dismissed.

The Market.

The market this morning showed no material change from that of last Saturday. The supply was seemingly equal to the demand. Butter and eggs were unchanged in prices. Lima beans were weaker, and some good specimens were selling at 20 cents a box, although a few countrymen were holding them at 25 cents.

Shriners' Day.

"Shriners' Day" is being celebrated at Luna Park today, and the occasion has been enjoyable in every particular. At 5 o'clock p. m. a marriage ceremony will be performed for a man and woman, in the musical shell. As has been stated, the contracting parties will be conveyed in automobiles from their respective homes in Washington, to the station of the Washington, Alexandria, and Mount Vernon Railway, and in the private car of the president of the road will finish the trip to Luna Park. The marriage ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Fisher, of this city. A second marriage ceremony will be performed in the musical shell, at 8 o'clock, and Mayor Paff, of Alexandria, will give away the bride.

"Southern Day" at the park on Monday next promises to be an enjoyable affair. The excursion will be held under the auspices of the Southern societies of the city, and the committee is working indefatigably to make the day a success. The public schools will be given half day holiday to enable the children to enjoy the outing, when all the attractions, including the circle swing, merry go-round, illusions, shoot the chute and old mill, are be free to the young folks from 1 to 6. Besides this, each ticket holds two coupons, which enables the holder to two more amusements.

Disorderly School Boys.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of five pupils of Washington school who had been arrested by Officer Knight for disorderly conduct and fighting in the streets. One of the youths, it was said, had previously been suspended from the school for a similar offense. The justice, after administering a lecture to the accused, dismissed them with an admonition. It requires the services of two policemen in the vicinity of the school building daily at the hours of dismissal to see that certain pupils proceed to their homes quietly. As has been stated in this column on other occasions, according to a rule, pupils guilty of unseemly conduct in going to or returning from school can be expelled. Should further disorders occur the School Board may insist upon the enforcement of the rule referred to after the parents of incorrigible boys shall have been notified.

The Corrinne Runkel Co.

The Corrinne Runkel Company, which for the past four seasons has been touring the South with great success, by special arrangement has been secured to open a two weeks' engagement at the Opera House commencing Monday, October 1. This company has made for itself the name of the best popular price attraction in the South. This season, carrying a complete repertoire of plays and a company of twenty people who pride themselves of the production in which they appear. This company has always been noted for the excellence of the special features carried this season they feature the Buton-Runkel Trio, which created such a sensation everywhere. Monday night ladies will be admitted to the best seats in the house for fifteen cents if purchased on or before 7 p. m. at Warfields drug store.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting Etta Johnson, was fined $10.

Lemuel Carter, arrested by Officer Knight, charged with promoting policy, was fined $20.

Five pupils of Washington school, arrested by Officer Knight, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed with an admonition.

A colored man, arrested by Officer Knight for keeping an unlicensed dog, was released upon obtaining a license.

To be Tried by Police Board.

The police trial board in Washington will determined the case of Capt. Matthews, who, with the police of Fourth precinct, is charged with acting in an inefficient manner when Engineer Hugh S. Murphy, of the Southern Railway, was scalded to death beneath his overturned engine at Sixth street and Maryland avenue. Maj. Sylvester says that if these men who declare they are railroad workmen and expert in the use of wrecking implements, were attempting to raise the engine from Murphy, they should not have been molested by the police.

New Locomotives.

A number of new locomotives of the 800 series have been received by the Southern Railway Company during the past few days. Four of the engines were at the Duke street depot this morning. They will be used in the transportation of freight trains. The locomotives were built by the Baldwin Works, Philadelphia. One of the new engines jumped the track and turned over at Charlottesville yesterday morning. The locomotive was considerably damaged and a box car demolished. No one was hurt by the accident.

Missionary Address.

Miss Ruth Robinson, daughter of Bishop Robinson, of Lucknow, India, will deliver a missionary address in Trinity M. E. Church at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Miss Robinson has delivered addresses in other cities recently, and her observations concerning the manners and customs in India are said to be very interesting. The public is cordially invited.

An Interesting Relic.

Unknown to many in this city a piece of the plate of the old Colonial Church at Jamestown has been deposited for safe-keeping at the First National Bank since the year 1866, just forty years ago. Bishop Meade knew of it and stated that it was preserved at the Theological Seminary. Evidently it was sent to Alexandria by the late Dr. Packard through Rev. Dr. Sprigg to the First National Bank for preserving it in safety. This piece of plate is a paten of the old style for containing the bread used at Holy Communion. The inscription upon it is in Latin and reads as follows: "In usum ecclesiae Jacobi-polis ex dono Dni Edmundi Andros Equitis Virginiae Gubernatoris. Anno Domini MDCXCIV, that is for the use of the church at Jamestown, the gift of Lord Edmund Andros, Knight, Governor of Virginia in the year of our Lord 1694. This inscription surrounds the coat of arms of Governor Andros. This piece of plate is thus 212 years old and is of great value on account of its history. It must have been lost for some time as there is a further inscription added to the old one, "Presented by Hugh Monroe of Mobile to the Diocese of Virginia through Rev. B. B. Leacock, 1856." The paten was brought to the Gazette office today by one of the professors of the Seminary and shown to a number of gentlemen. It will be an interesting relic for the Jamestown Exposition.

Anniversary of Tornado.

Tonight will be the tenth anniversary of the tornado in Alexandria which resulted in the death of Mr. W. D. Stewart in his house on Cameron street and Mrs. Louisa Holt at her residence on Peyton street extended. Both were killed outright. Some houses were completely demolished by the high wind, while the roofs were blown from many others, chimneys and fences thrown down and considerable other damage done. Walls were in a number of instances prostrated and trees uprooted, while tin roofs were rolled up as scrolls and sent sailing in the air. Electric light, railway, telegraph and telephone wires were thrown down and tangled together and poles were blown down. A brick church in the northern portion of the city, owned by colored people, was almost totally destroyed.

Drowned by the Storm.

Sergeant Prentice was at one time ordnance sergeant at Fort Hunt, near this city, and has a number of friends and acquaintances in Alexandria, who will regret to hear of his bereavement. Mrs. Prentice was the mother of Mrs. Chas. S. Sherwood of this city. It is supposed that the drowning was the result of the recent storm. The remains of Mrs. Prentice and her son will be brought to this city for interment.

Accident to a Trolleyman.

Trolleyman William Linwood was seriously injured by being struck by a southbound electric train at New Alexandria about 11:45 o'clock this morning Linwood was engaged in flagging the train at the time of the accident. He was knocked down and seriously cut on the head. Several of his teeth were knocked out and he received painful bodily bruises. The injured trolleyman was brought to this city and taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. The train was in charge of Conductor Bell and Motorman Payne.

JEWELRY.

Had Any Jewelry Accidents

While enjoying your vacation? If you had, do not throw the pieces away. What you may believe is impossible to fix, we are most likely able to repair and return to you looking like new.

We have just fixed up a broken brooch pin that came to us in an awful state. Now it looks as though nothing ever happened to it.

It might be well to have your travelling alarm clock and your watch cleaned. A great deal of sand and dust must have crept into them. Matter of this kind will eventually damage the works considerably. But if you have the cleaning done now you will not only prevent serious accidents, but will have the time-pieces in perfect repair for at least a year to come, and we guarantee our repairs for one year.

If you did not break your watch chain it certainly must show the wear and tear it was subjected to during the summer. Let us fix it up and replate it. Our charge is fair. Or if you would rather add a little to the repair charge and get a new chain purchase the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain. The chain is guaranteed not to break in natural wear in twenty years.

Brought to Book at Last.

Tibbie was a Scotch lass, hardworking and comely. She ruled over a grateful and suppressed family of New Englanders for eight years, and then announced her intention of marrying within six weeks.

"I suppose it is Rab whom you mean to marry, Tibbie?" asked her nominal mistress, referring to a tall, mild faced young Scotchman who had spent more or less time in Tibbie's spotless kitchen for the last three years.

"It is," announced Tibbie calmly. "Here he's been coming and sitting wi' me all these times and never a word o' merrying. So at long last I said to him, 'If you've no mind to tak me, Rab, ye can jist say so, and I'll spend nae more on bright ribbons to sit up wi' ye, but I'll tak' my money to buy one of those talking machines that plays tunes, after I've paid for a strip o' new oilcloth to cover the floor where you've worn out the old one, and then I'll tak' my releegious books and settle down in quiet.'

"Rabbie was so concerned at my drear prospects and the thoughts o' my savings he said he would ha'e me whenever I got ready."

Shooting Down the Alps on Skees.

The quest for a moral is provoked by a long list of skeeing accidents in the Alps. In itself the exercise can hardly be considered more perilous than skating, though the proportion of sprained ankles and twisted tendons is higher, but when the skeer skees a distance from his base and ventures upon unfamiliar ground there are at least three ways in which calamity is liable to befall him. On a glacier he may break through the snow bridge which he is trying to shoot and be buried in a crevasse. On the hillside he may skee violently down a steep place and, unable to arrest his pace, end by skeeing over a precipice. Almost anywhere, unless he knows the signs, he may skee in the tracks of an avalanche and be overwhelmed. Examples of each of these several kinds of disaster have lately been presented, and each of the disasters conveys a warning of which amateur skeers, whose name nowadays is legion, would do well to take a careful note.—London Graphic.

Sufficiently Identified.

She walked into a branch bank on upper Broadway and pushed a check through the paying teller's window.

"You will have to be identified," said he. "I don't know you, madam."

"You don't, eh?" said the woman, with fire in her eye. "Aren't you the father of the Smith family that has a flat in the Pileremin apartments?"

"Y-e-s."

"Well, I am the red headed janitress that your wife's always complaining about. When you left home this morning I heard you say: 'Emily, if our children get fighting with that old fury in the basement don't quarrel with her. Wait till I get home and let me talk with her.' Now, if you think you can get the best of an argument with"—

"Here's your money, madam," said the paying teller. And she took it and went.—Everybody's Magazine.

Where Lincoln Put the Whetstone.

A soldier at whose house when a boy Lincoln paused in his tramps in Illinois and who lent him a whetstone to sharpen his jackknife met him during the war in Washington. Lincoln remembered the incident and spoke of the use of the whetstone.

"Ya-a-s," drawled out the old soldier, "whatever did you do with the whetstone? I never could find it. We 'lowed mebbe you took it along with you." "No, no! I put it on top of the gatepost—that high one." "Mebbe you did. Nobody else could have reached it, and none of us ever thought to look there for it." There it was found where it was placed fifteen years before. The soldier reported the fact to the president.

Why He Wanted a Pass.

When Jim Fisk was in his glory as a railroad magnate one day he was greatly annoyed by people asking for passes over his road for all sorts of reasons. He was well worked up when a seedy looking individual asked for a pass and asked sharply, "On what grounds do you ask for a pass?"

The applicant replied, "Because I do not want to pay my fare."

Fisk called a clerk and said to him: "Give this man a pass to anywhere and return. He is the first man that has told the truth today."—Boston Herald.

A Couple of Bulls.

On the edge of a small river in County Cavan, Ireland, is a stone with this inscription: "When this stone is out of sight it is not safe to ford the river." But this is even surpassed by the famous post erected some years ago by the surveyors of the Kent (England) roads: "This is the bridle path to Faversham. If you can't read this you had better keep to the main road."

Natural Fitness.

"My friend," said the man who was getting out of the barber's chair with a slashed cheek, "you have enlightened my mind on a point that has hitherto been a mystery."

"What is that, sir?"

"For the first time I understand why in former times the village barber was also expected to be the town surgeon."—Washington Star.
